CONDUIT FINANCIAL PARTNERS ENTERS BUSINESS FINANCE MARKET

Charlotte, NC, August 25, 2010 - Conduit Financial Partners provides non-traditional and private lending resources to meet the cash flow needs of businesses.

“The current lending environment continues to frustrate and confound many small businesses throughout the country. At a time when we need private business to aid in economic recovery, traditional lenders have shut their doors. This makes it virtually impossible for businesses to maintain status quo, let alone grow”, said Managing Partner, Sylvia Stock. Conduit Financial Partners offers multi-faceted funding programs to meet the dynamic and specific cash flow needs of companies; providing solutions in the areas of accounts receivable factoring, inventory and asset-based lending, and equipment finance.

When traditional lenders are unresponsive or can't act fast enough, Conduit Financial Partners stands as a reliable resource with a focus on making the funding process as quick and simple as possible, so that clients can focus on their core business. Conduit Financial Partners' goal is that by utilizing their expertise, businesses continue to succeed in their area of expertise.
